What are the elements and entries of our pride matrix?

My dear fellow Eritreans everywhere, in times like now, it is our natural obligation, that each authentic Eritrean should respond to the foolish, indifferent, retarded, self-centered, irresponsible, arrogant acts of Weyane and his masters, for the long-term inhumane, destructive, repercussion that may result in, is not only against us but it includes the whole Horn of Africa.

Reuters: Wed 12 Sep 2007, 11:43 GMT: Ethiopia accuses Norway of aiding terrorists – paper

I can't help but amuse myself in sound laughter to read Reuters, where the bankrupt regime of Weyane in Adis Abeba accuses Norway of aiding terrorists – Paper. Norway is a country like all Scandinavian States, globally envied and admired for their peace-loving and efficient practice of democracy, like no other nation in the world.

How senile or retarded should M. Zenawi be to venture such an allegation. He is reducing himself to a ridiculous blabberer; I am afraid he has never been better. Just like Eritrea in its efforts for peace in the Horn of Africa was branded as "destabilising" so is now Norway for its globally respected efforts for peace. Incredible, Norway a peace-loving country renowned to have lived without war for hundreds of years and respected for its benevolent philanthropy evrywhere on this planet!!!

M. Zenawi like a well tamed dog is perfect in serving and entertaining his masters in Washington DC. Infact to the full satisfaction of his masters he is imitating like a parrot, applying the fashionable concept "Terrorists" for everything that doesn't befit his wicked devices or those of his Masters'. So bizarre it may sound, any peace-intiative outside their policy is "destabilising" or worse "terroristic". I believe it is time that we redefine anew and afresh the word "terrorist" in the English dictionary for the sake of Peace in the World.

According to the hitherto observed poor professional skills of Jendayi Frazer & Co. logically, like in the case of Eritrea, Norway will be defacto branded the next "Rogue State" and be on the list of "state sponsor of terrorism" nations. This would not surprise me. I can't help laughing, ... come on ... you don't have to be a brilliant politician, a scholar or an intellectual to notice, how hopelessly bankrupt the regime in Adis Abeba and its sponsor the US-Foreign Policy are. Alas, it suffices to consider the hypocrite, inwardly rotten and hollow regime in Ethiopia and the unpopularity of its sponsor i.e. the US-Foreign Policy, to mention the least, Iraq, the Horn of Africa, the unpopularity of the White-House staff within the USA, the hitherto never seen cold US / UK relationship, etc.

Eritreans are not impressed by Jendayi Frazer's intimidating warnings. Eritrea is used to such ephemeral death-groanings of dying, confused "policymakers", short before their end. Eritrea is unique, thanks to its tenacious, united, patriotic people at home and in the diaspora. Thanks to the visionary, forward-looking, intelligent leadership in Asmara, indeed Eritrea is a beacon state of hope for Africa, the undisputed favourite of every African I met, including Ethiopians in my vicinity.

The majority of the US population is relieved that the duration of the incompetent current US regime will end soon, within a year and two months. By then J. Frazer, M. Zenawi and Co. will be buried in oblivion, where else, as it suits their professional "achievements and relevance", of course in the garbage of history. Does any one remember Mengistu Hailemariam?

As a proud Eritrean, a pan Afro and a scholar, I admonish my fellow Eritreans (though we all know it) of our unique attributes now more than ever, namely as usual our unity (one heart one people), our love for our nation, our sincer and natural respect for peace, justice and truth, our diligence, our self-reliance, our tenacity and love for freedom are the precious elements and entries of our pride-matrix, which no force can rob away from us. These are the nobel elements, that make an Eritrean distinguished. Merely this pride, nothing else but this is what has always made us distinguished and unique in the world. Paradoxically, this is what our enemies hate in us. Now, shall we change because of them? Never !!!

God bless Eritrea and the Eritreans

Victory to the Eritrean People
